game yet and to be making the strongest kind of an effort to secure the Sullivan-Corroper color. He sent Mr. Lyding out to have it altered to fit him. The boy who was has imposed a $2,500 fortest condition upon o have brought it back lost it on the road. Mr. Weeks at the last moment found himself vigless. Being bald he was in despair. The remedy was desperate, but original. Mark appeared looking like an artistic chromo.

Maurice Barrymore has written a drame lied " The Lady of the Loch." Barrymore is certainly developing his literary bump.

Francis Wilson's comic opera, " The Merry Theatre, London, to follow " Cinder-ellen " at been on the tapis for a long time, though London managers have not as yet been able to pluck up courage enough to produce it.

A peculiar incident occurred at the Academy during a rehearsal of Adele Sandrock and company the other morning. The play was one of those emotional delicacies, in which a few fainting fits are dotted about. A sofa was necessary for the heroine to fall upon. It had not been used for some time, but had been preserved from moths by wholesale applications of red pepper. When Fri. Sandrock's turn came to swoon she threw herself confidingly upon the velvet lounge, and, not being absolutely aylph-like, her weight caused a cloud of red pepper to ascend. Everybody sneezed and feit uncomfortable and the rehearsal was broken up.

Miss May Robson says that she cannot possibly make out to whom her services belong. She was lent by Dan Frohman to Charles Frohman for "Gloriana." She will go out on the road with that piece, but Charles Frohman will return her to Dan Frohman when that gentleman does "Lady Bountiful" again. Then there is some talk of her going back to Charles Frohman until Dan Frohman is ready for her. There is nothing like being in request.

The Missing Link" is the name of the play itten by Aubrey Bouckeault, in which he with E. J. Henley, to star next season.

Mrs. Louise Dudley Lettis-Carter is making heroic efforts to economize. Not only are cat-tares unknown expenses, but she is patronizing the less elaborate hotels and living very unostentatiously. She says that she wants to pay her debts—and that is very nice of her, isn't it?

Thomas W. Keene, who stopped acting a w weeks ago, is again going on the road, be-inning Easter week.

There have been rumors that Marie Tempest would go back to London and produce "The Tyrolean" in that city. The fact is, however, that Miss Tempest was not at all pleased with "The Tyrolean," which scarcely came up to her ideas of comic opera. As for producing it in London—well, she is now under contract to Manager J. M. Hill.

At the New Park Theatrs to-night there will be a play called "O'Flynn in Mexico." It is of course a fun-maker. Alfred Kelcy plays the chief role.

To-day the Giants will play the last practice game of the preliminary season at the Polo Grounds with the Williams College nine. They will open the professional season tomorrow at Philadelphia. The Brooklyns will play their first League game at Baittimore. Yesterday Cincinnsti defeated indianapolis (14 to 9) and Louisville turned down Milwaukee (10 to 3).

The cross-country runners had a gala day yesterday. The various club teams training for the national championships took jaunts of from five to eight miles. To-night many of the well-known harriers will join with the Aroma A. A., of Jersey City, in its opening run of the season. The trial will be over the hill country back of Jersey City. All cross-country runners are invited to meet a committee of the Club at Liberty street ferry to-night at 8 o'clock. The junior team of the Columbia Athletic Club will be out in its full strength. Refreshments will be served by the Club at the finish. The cross-country runners had a gala day

A. G. Spalding & Brothers, the well-known manufacturers of athletic goods, have issued a very neat and concise score book for the use of those who wish to keep a personal record of the games. The book is handsomely bound in red leather, and is prefacen by the new League rules on scoring.

Entries for the fifth annual cross-country handicap run of the Suburban Harriers on Saturday, April 16, close to-night with T. Avery Collett, 344 East Nineteenth street, or E. C. Carter, 252 Broadway. Already the entry-list is larger than for any previous run held by the Association.

A strong effort is being made by some of the prominent members of the Middle States Regatta Association to induce the Association to rescind its action about the date for the an-nual regatta. The present plan is to hold the regatta in Juhe on the Passaic. It is ar-gued by the opposition that July 4 would be a much better day. Some other course is also suggested.

Henry Irving may possibly bring his company to this country next season and do the heroics at the Chicago Fair. Mr. Irving has been threatening to come for some time, and the threatening this summer.
